Terms of Use: Policy: December 8, 2020 Version 1.4.70 - Improved Performance!- Fixed Minor Bugs! This game is very big. I've had it for a day or so now and it's already one of my favorite games. There are a number of things I could point out, though, and a number of suggestions for what you might add. There is a bit of an animation error when a giant is shot, that jump at some kind of 75-degree angle before it falls. Apart from the fact that I didn't see anything, though. I think the game would have improved a lot if you added leagues, you can beat Clash of Clans style. You'd be placed in a league by yourself. Your, and could try and get to No.1. I also think it would be great to have different game modes. I imagined this game as a king of multiplayer FPS were you could buy characters, then play like them in battle. Overall though, it's a great game and I would definitely recommend getting it! Ok you should download 100% this game, it's awesome. But anyway I've been thinking about this for a while now and the thought is whether you can control/be one of your troops/soldiers if this was at least in customs, which would be awesome, you'd be trying to pull off a giant like a gladiator or killing though ~~an~~ spearman like a dragon. I also think that bombers and muskets should stay in online after you can beat them by slaughtering cheap guys without weapons to pull out expensive bombers or with muskets you can place knights on board to load at the speed of autumn to them, which I why I like ♥ this game because there is no possible set that would beat everything that always depends. It makes the game unique and that's why it gets 5 stars  This game is phenomenal, I have to admit, but that doesn't mean I can't ask for things to do even better, does it? Ok. Here is my suggestion. More medieval troops. Can want to use something like Elder Scrolls V: Skyrim's Dragonborn, or a cool assassin/thief (medieval, obviously), maybe a wolf or dog (hell, even someone who has a dog, would be maybe there can be 2 bands in a slot or something.) Oh, and another thing, a band that can BUFF!@ would be CRAAAZY to see a buffing or healing wizard (if you're going to do it, please call it either wise or priest, please?) But I'll play great and everything, but please take these suggestions and think about them. You may not see this, but anyway, I'm gone. Paware !
